HI, I'M IGGI · JAMES'S TRIP-BUILDING BUDDY

Every place in here is a page number. Circle the ones that make you grin, then find Iggi's Compass on the Indonesia page at jameswildco.com. Tell me your month and your crew; I'll sketch the voyage, James takes it from there. Never lost. Only scenic.

A LETTER BEFORE YOU GO

Dear Jane,

In November 2024 I sailed Raja Ampat aboard Aliikai with my son. We dropped in off Kri on the first morning and the reef simply didn't end: fusiliers in rivers, a turtle that couldn't have cared less about us, coral in colours I don't have names for. I've been diving for more than forty years, and I came up laughing.

Indonesia is too big to see, so don't try. Seventeen thousand islands is not an itinerary. Pick a sea, pick the right boat, and give it time. The right boat is a phinisi: a wooden schooner built by hand on the beaches of South Sulawesi, the way they have been for generations.

Then come ashore. Bali is where most of these voyages begin or end, and it deserves more than a night by the airport: rice terraces and temple ceremonies around Ubud, a cliff over the Indian Ocean on the Bukit. Land, then sea. You should feel the change.

The middle of the Coral Triangle

EAST · RAJA AMPAT & BANDA · THE DEEP REEFS

Inside the shoal PHOTO: TO CONFIRM

Reefs you can't exaggerate

Raja Ampat sits where the Pacific and Indian oceans meet, at the heart of the Coral Triangle. Surveys here have counted almost 600 species of reef-building coral and more than 1,200 kinds of fish. You don't need to dive: a mask and snorkel off the tender is plenty.

Boats with a bloodline

The phinisi is the two-masted schooner of South Sulawesi, still built by hand on the beaches of Tana Beru and Bira. The best of them now carry a dive centre, a chef and a crew of fifteen or more for a dozen guests.

Islands with a culture

Bali's temple calendar, the Abui villages of Alor, the nutmeg forts of Banda. A good voyage spends as much time ashore as under water.

> Indonesia rewards the second week. You spend the first one learning how big it is.

Pick the sea first, then the month

The best time to sail Indonesia depends on the sea: Raja Ampat from October to April, Komodo and Bali from April to November.

Who Indonesia by sea is for, and who it isn't

The short answer: anyone who loves the water, and nobody in a hurry. Here's how I'd match you.

| BEST FOR | IDEAL LENGTH | BEST TIME | HOW |
|---|---|---|---|
| Divers, sailors and anyone who likes their luxury barefoot | 10 to 16 days: a week at sea, a few nights ashore | Raja Ampat Oct–Apr; Komodo and Bali Apr–Nov | Private phinisi charter, then villas on Bali |

MADE FOR YOU IF YOU'RE…

OUR PICK · COMO SHAMBHALA ESTATE, UBUD

The culture-curious
Temple ceremonies in Ubud, the Abui on Alor, the spice forts of Banda.

OUR PICK · SILOLONA · THE SPICE ISLANDS

THINK TWICE IF YOU'RE…

Bad sailors
A phinisi rolls; it's part of her charm. Some nights you'll disagree.

OUR PICK · BALI VILLAS, THEN A SHORT KOMODO CRUISE

Nightlife hunters
Seminyak has it. The rest of Indonesia has better things to do.

OUR PICK · TWO NIGHTS IN SEMINYAK, THEN OUT

Anyone in a hurry
The flights alone take a day. Come for two weeks, or wait.

OUR PICK · STRETCH TO TWELVE NIGHTS

Limited mobility
Tender transfers, boarding ladders, steep village paths.

OUR PICK · BALI VILLAS AND A GENTLER ROUTE

Signal addicts
Raja Ampat has more fish than phone signal.

OUR PICK · SATELLITE ON BOARD FOR EMERGENCIES

RULES OF THE ROAD

01 Pick the sea before the ship. The month decides the water; the water decides everything.

02 The smaller the boat, the bigger the sea. Six to fourteen guests, never more.

03 Arrive the day before the day before. Domestic flights run late; yachts sail on the tide.

04 Land, then sea. Bali first, so the yacht is the reward.

WORDS WE'VE STRUCK OUT

|---|---|
| ~~paradise~~ | Overused, and paradise is usually crowded. These places aren't. |
| ~~undiscovered~~ | The Bajau sea nomads and the Konjo boatbuilders got here centuries before us. |
| ~~once in a lifetime~~ | Most of our guests come back for the next sea. Plan for twice. |

What to know, and what not to expect

Getting to Raja Ampat and Komodo, park fees, fitness, packing and straight answers.

Getting there

Fly into Bali (Denpasar). Komodo is about an hour east to Labuan Bajo; Raja Ampat starts at Sorong, usually via Jakarta or Makassar. Arrive a day early.

Fees at the door

Bali's tourist levy, IDR 150,000 per foreign visitor. Indonesia's visa on arrival or e-visa [confirm current fee]. Raja Ampat marine park entry card and Komodo National Park fees [confirm]; most yachts arrange the permits.

Fitness

Tender transfers, boarding ladders and the odd steep lookout. Confident swimmers get the most from the reefs; dive courses can be arranged on board.

Pack

Reef-safe sunscreen, a rash vest, light long sleeves and a sarong for temples, water shoes, a dry bag, and your dive card if you have one.

What not to expect

| | |
|---|---|
| ~~Casino~~ | The only gamble is whether the mantas show up. |
| ~~Formal nights~~ | Dress code: barefoot by dinner. |
| ~~On-time flights~~ | Domestic schedules are suggestions. We build in a buffer. |
| ~~Crowded reefs~~ | Not where we take you. |
| ~~Strong Wi-Fi~~ | Limited at sea. Post the photos at home. |

Straight answers

Do I need to dive? No. Most sites are as good with a mask and snorkel.

Sea or land first time? Land first. Then the yacht feels like a reward.

Children? Strong fit on Dunia Baru and Aliikai. Age guidance [confirm per yacht].
